Upon entering, you'll be greeted by towering 25-foot cathedral ceilings that highlight the home's exquisite timber structure. A wall of floor-to-ceiling windows frames the breathtaking vistas of the Rockies and Big Rock, creating a striking focal point for the entire living space. Every detail of this home has been meticulously crafted, from the handpicked beams and logs to the handmade timber cabinetry, custom countertops, and beautifully milled wood floors. The chef-inspired country kitchen is a dream, featuring a large center island, custom cabinetry with built-in drawers, and high-end stainless steel appliances. It opens into the expansive great room, where the centerpiece is a beautiful wood-burning fireplace, complete with a handcrafted mantle, hearth, and travertine surround. The main-floor master suite offers private access to the back deck and includes a luxurious 4-piece ensuite bath with a soaker tub, walk-in closet, electric in-floor heating, and stunning epoxy countertops. Conveniently located off the front porch, the main-floor powder room and laundry room are perfect for busy country living. An open staircase with wrought iron spindles leads to the second level, where you'll find a cozy loft area and a second master suiteâ€”both separated by an open catwalk that overlooks the main level. Two private balconies on the second floor offer breathtaking views of Big Rock, the rolling foothills, and the Rocky Mountains. The lower level of the home features four additional bedrooms and a 3-piece bathroom with a steam shower. With in-floor heating and a separate private entrance, this level offers exciting possibilities for a guest suite, Airbnb, or Bed and Breakfast. Two additional TimberFrame structures grace the property, including a 12x16 greenhouse/workshop and a secluded gazebo nestled among the gardens. This exceptional home was originally the showhome for the multi-award-winning Crazy Creek TimberFrame Homes and was featured in episodes of the beloved Canadian TV show, Heartland.
